Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	The care plans for each individual are reviewed monthly by the manager. The residents are able to communicate their needs to the management and staff who are in contact with them on a daily basis. A biannual questionnaire is sent out to residents / relatives to get feedback
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	the residents are able to discuss their needs with management and every attempt is made to encourage communication and facilitate any adjustments to the care of the individual
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	The safeguarding procedure is in place for the residents / relatives / staff to use. This is a safety measure to ensure that each individual has a voice and is able to have any issue investigated and feel secure in the place that they live
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Their relatives are able to visit and take their family member out. There are no restrictions at this time.
