Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

We always ensure that people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

All our services revolve around ensuring that people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Our services always protect residents from abuse and neglect, and if any abuse is suspected we report it to Safeguarding for advice and guidance.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Our services always provide accommodation that best supports residents' wellbeing and achievement of their desired personal outcomes
